ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT January 2004 Update

Subarea Health Planning Councils (SACs) Activities

- Hawaii Members discussed what they will be doing to complete their role in the Transportation project. They plan to get in touch with all of the attendees of the Transportation conference last spring and develop a fact sheet. Proposed health care development in West Hawaii was discussed.
- Honolulu The January meeting was cancelled due to inclement weather.
- Kauai Dely Sasaki, Kauai DHO office and Art Tani, Kauai Liaison, Cancer Information Services of Hawaii were invited to tell members about a very special program (AANCART) funded by the National Cancer Institute for the building of partnerships with leaders of Kauai's Filipino communities in the fight against cancer.
- Tri-Isle The SAC is gathering information on what is being proposed to serve current and future Maui health care needs. Health planning discussions are underway on Maui as a variety of groups are looking for a way to meet increasing demands for hospital beds and other health services.
- Windward There was no meeting this month.
- West Oahu There was no meeting scheduled for this month.
